

Three-ball 30-degree angle

These templates will allow you to set up three balls that are touching with an angle of 30 degrees (half-ball hit) to use for various demonstrations. Use a standard hole punch for the holes. Make sure the punch is centered. For some spacing between the balls or to freeze small balls, move the punch along the line.