

Ball outlines -- print out this page, cut out the ball outline, and use as a target for rail shots and such. Stiff paper works better, so you may want to use the thin, printed version as a template. The squares are provided so that you can measure both diameters after printing and find the center of the circle.

